Sire, The blow which was aimed at your Majeſty's Life ſtruck at the Heart of every Britiſh Subject. An united People raiſe their Voice in Thanks and Adoration to Almighty God for this great and ſignal Mark of Divine Favor, in preſerving to them their beloved Sovereign and common Father.

[Preſented by the Reverend John Moore, LL. B. Preſident, John Brand, M. A. and James Davies, Deans.]

[Preſented by Sir John Wrothſley and Mr. Anſon.]

With the deepeſt Sentiments of Gratitude for the Security which your Majeſty's Government offers to our happy Conſtitution in Church and State; with the fulleſt Senſe of the Value of your ineſtimable Life in our arduous Struggle for all that is dear to us; and with the trueſt Love for a King endeared to us by every Conſideration, we humbly bleſs the goodneſs of Divine Providence, and pray that your Majeſty may long live the King and Father of a grateful and loyal People.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Oxford, humbly preſent to your Majeſty, our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the late moſt atrocious Attempt on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

Anxious, as we always are, for the Safety of the beſt and moſt beloved of Sovereigns, we cannot but feel the utmoſt Horror and Indignation, when ſuch wicked and daring Attacks are made upon a Life ſo neceſſary to the Proſperity and Happineſs of every Individual in this Kingdom. We truſt, however, that the Divine Protection, which has been hitherto afforded us in ſo many and ſuch undeniable Inſtances, and has on this Occaſion been ſo ſingularly conſpicuous, will be continued towards us, in the Preſervation of what we hold moſt dear.

As loyal Subjects to your Crown, and as moſt zealous and affectionate to your Perſon, we humbly offer to your Majeſty the warmeſt Aſſurances of our Readineſs to guard and defend a Life ſo valuable, with the Sacrifice of our own; whether our Exertions ſhould be called upon againſt the audacious Attempts of Foreign Enemies, or the ſecret Machinations of domeſtic Traitors.

We reflect with Horror on the Baſeneſs of the Individual, who could harbor the dreadful Thought of aiming a Blow at the Life of a Sovereign, rendered dear to his Country by every Act of paternal Love and Kindneſs, and in whoſe Exiſtence, in theſe Times of Innovation and Reſtleſſneſs, not only our own Peace, but that of the civilized World, ſo much depends. Rejoicing in the Watchfulneſs of Providence over your ſacred Perſon, we truſt that your Majeſty's Life will be long preſerved, to be a Bleſſing to us and to all our Fellow-ſubjects, and whether it is attacked by Treaſon at Home, or hoſtile Invaſion from Abroad, we are ready to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in your Majeſty's Defence.

We acknowledge, with all Humility and Gratitude, the merciful Interpoſition of Providence, which has been manifeſted on this Occaſion, and we make it our earneſt Prayer to Almighty God that he will be pleaſed to continue to watch over and to protect a Life ſo juſtly dear to all your Majeſty's Subjects.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Suſſex, beg Leave to expreſs our moſt cordial Congratulations on your late providential Eſcape from the atrocious Attempt of a moſt daring Aſſaſſin.

Deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of the Bleſſings we have enjoyed during your Majeſty's long and proſperous Reign, we cannot help feeling with peculiar Gratitude and Reverence this additional Mark of Divine Favor towards theſe Kingdoms. And we offer up our humble and fervent Prayers to Almighty God, the Diſpoſer of all Events, that he will be graciouſly pleaſed to extend his Mercy to us by a long Continuance of a Life ſo truly dear to every Deſcription of your Majeſty's Subjects.

We beg Leave, with all Humility and Sincerity, to take this Opportunity of renewing our Allegiance to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to aſſure you, that as far as depends upon us, nothing ſhall be wanting to contribute to your Majeſty's perſonal Comfort and Happineſs; and to the Splendor of a Reign which muſt be ever diſtinguiſhed in Hiſtory for the Dignity and Firmneſs with which your Majeſty has maintained and defended the Rights and Privileges of your faithful People, and ſupported the Cauſe of Religion and ſocial Order throughout the World.

[Preſented by the High Sheriff, attended by Mr. Pelham and General Lenox, Members for the County.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Lord-Lieutenant, Nobility, and principal Inhabitants of the County of Glouceſter, this Day aſſembled at the Booth-Hall in Glouceſter, being the Common Shire Hall of the ſaid County, in conſequence of the late moſt daring and atrocious Attempt againſt your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne to offer our Heartfelt and ſincere Congratulations, that Providence, in Addition to the many Bleſſings it hath already beſtowed upon this Country, hath averted the Blow of the Aſſaſſin, and preſerved to us a Life ſo juſtly endeared by the many diſtinguiſhed Virtues that adorn your Majeſty's Character never more eminently conſpicuous than in the Moment of Trial.

Penetrated with Gratitude for the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's juſt and mild Government, we further beg Leave to offer our earneſt Prayers to Almighty God, that he may long preſerve to us the ſame Bleſſings, and continue his watchful Care over that Life which is at once the Pride and Happineſs of our Country.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon, having beheld, with equal Horror and Aſtoniſhment, the Outrage which has been lately offered to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, deſire to be permitted to approach your Majeſty, with our moſt humble but heartfelt Congratulations on your Majeſty's Safety.

While we admire that Dignity, which never fails to diſtinguiſh your Majeſty's Character, whenever an Occaſion calls it forth; and while we bow with devout Gratitude to the Divine Providence for the late ſignal Interpoſition in our Favor, we muſt ſtill deplore the ſolitary Inſtance of Depravity, which has caſt a Stain on the Times in which we live, by the Commiſſion of ſo foul and atrocious a Treaſon.

We truſt, however, that the united Vows of a whole Nation will be effectual to blot it out, and that your Majeſty's Reign will be recorded to the lateſt Poſterity, as being eſtabliſhed in the Hearts and Affections of all your Subjects.

We lay at your Majeſty's Feet, our fixed Reſolution to ſhed our Blood, ſhould the Occaſion require it, in Defence of your Majeſty's Crown and Perſon againſt every Attack, whether of open War or of ſecret Conſpiracy, and we ceaſe not to offer up our Prayers to the King of Kings for the Preſervation of a Life ſo eſſentially connected with our common Happineſs.

In Behalf of the County ſigned
R. Putt, Sheriff.

[Preſented by Mr. Baſtard and Sir Lawrence Palk, attended by Earl Powlett, Lord Rolle, and Colonel Orchard.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Salop, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our affectionate Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Deliverance from the late Danger which threatened your ſacred Life.

Attached to your Majeſty by a profound Veneration for the Virtues which adorn your Character, and by a juſt Senſe of the Bleſſings derived from your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government, we contemplate, with the utmoſt Horror and Indignation, ſo daring and treaſonable an Attempt upon your Majeſty's Perſon; and, while our Minds are impreſſed with the warmeſt Admiration of the Firmneſs diſplayed by your Majeſty on this trying Occaſion, we make it our earneſt Prayer, that the ſame Divine Power which has ſo ſignally interpoſed for your Majeſty's Safety, will continue to protect a Life endeared to us by every Sentiment that can bind a faithful People to their beloved Sovereign.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Southampton, deeply ſenſible of the invaluable Importance of your Majeſty's Life to the Happineſs and Welfare of all your People, have been ſtruck with a conſequent Shock of Horror and Indignation at the atrocious Attempt againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon: we bleſs, with cordial Thankſgiving, the providential Hand of Almighty God which averted the Blow and preſerved the Object of our ever grateful Loyalty and Attachment, endeared to us even more by your conſiderate Magnanimity than by the Senſe of our intereſted Alarms at the perilous Trial.

We are perſuaded, that Attacks thus oſtenſibly directed againſt your Majeſty's Perſon are covertly deſigned and expected to wound the Vitals of the Conſtitution; and we are therefore moſt anxious thus ſacredly to declare, that in every Event they can only tend to confirm our Attachment and Zeal for the Maintenance, in all its Parts, of that ineſtimable Conſtitution, to which your exemplary and unceaſing Regard can have alone expoſed your Majeſty to the Malevolence and Treaſon of its Enemies.

In offering the earneſt Expreſſion of our Congratulations to your Majeſty, and to the Britiſh Empire, upon your bleſſed Eſcape, we fervently add our Prayers to Heaven, that the heroic Virtue, which has been ſufficiently exhibited, and was not wanting for the Movement of our Senſibility or Veneration, may never again be put to Proof; but that through a Remainder of long and happy Life and of glorious Reign, employed, as by paſt Experience we are aſſured it will be, for the Advancement of our national Proſperity, for the Protection of the Laws and Liberties, and for the Welfare and Felicity of your Subjects, your Majeſty may ever have indubitable Cauſe to rely upon their united, unanimous, and grateful Devotions to the full Preſervation and Promotion of your Majeſty's perſonal Comfort and Security.

Signed, by Direction and on Behalf of the Meeting, Nath. Middleton, Sheriff.

Stricken, as we are, with a deep Senſe of the imminent Danger to which a Life ſo valuable has been expoſed, we look up with reverential Awe to that Supreme Being, by whoſe over-ruling Providence it has been, in tender Mercy to his People, ſo ſignally preſerved. With humble Confidence we hope and pray that the ſame gracious God may never ceaſe to ſtretch his protecting Arm over your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, thus confirming to us a long Continuance of thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings, which, under your Majeſty's ever mild, juſt, and effective Government we enjoy.

The long Experience we have had of your Majeſty's mild and beneficent Government, and of the many Virtues which adorn your Royal Character, have not failed to excite in our Minds the higheſt Reſpect and Reverence for your Majeſty's Perſon and Attachment to your Government; impreſt with theſe Sentiments we feel moſt ſincerely thankful to Divine Providence for the Protection afforded your Majeſty in the Moment of Danger; and we moſt ardently pray that it may pleaſe the Almighty long to preſerve a Life ſo juſtly dear to us, and ſo important to the Happineſs and Proſperity of the Country.

At the ſame Time that we congratulate your Majeſty, our fellow Subjects and ourſelves, on the providential Diſappointment of ſo wicked and ſo deſperate a Deſign, we cannot forbear to teſtify the keen Regret we feel at the imminent Danger to which our moſt gracious Sovereign has been expoſed, and the Abhorrence with which we contemplate the wild and malignant Spirit in which ſo dreadful a Purpoſe was conceived.

[Preſented by Mr. Crewe and Colonel Cholmondeley.]

The humble Addreſs of the Portreeves, Freeholders, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Aſhburton, in Common-Hall aſſembled.

WE beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on the ever to be remembered Interpoſition of Divine Providence in preſerving your Majeſty from the recent and atrocious Attempt on your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon.

The more we reflect on the ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild Government and unremitted Zeal for the Intereſt of your Subjects, the more Indignation and Amazement do we feel when we conſider the Heinouſneſs of this diabolical Attack on your Majeſty, whoſe whole Life has been an uninterrupted Series of the moſt affectionate and diffuſive Benevolence to his People.

We beg to renew to your moſt Gracious Majeſty our Aſſurances of Loyalty to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, a zealous and faithful Attachment to our noble and excellent Conſtitution, and our Willingneſs to guard and defend with our Lives your Majeſty's moſt valuable Life and thoſe of your Majeſty's Royal Progeny againſt the bold Attempts both of foreign and domeſtic Enemies.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen, and Freemen of the ancient Borough and Corporation of Appleby in our Town-Hall aſſembled, with the warmeſt Sentiments of reſpectful Attachment, beg Leave to offer our heart-felt Congratulations on the late happy Preſervation of your moſt Gracious Majeſty.

Impreſſed with the fulleſt Senſe of the manifold Bleſſings enjoyed under your Majeſty's anxiouſly paternal Reign, and jealous of every Attempt to diſturb the public Tranquillity or envied Pre-eminence of our glorious Conſtitution, we ſhudder with Horror and Indignation at the bare Idea of an Enormity providentially averted from your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

Penetrated with deepeſt Gratitude to the Almighty for this awful Inſtance of his heavenly Interpoſition, we moſt devoutly implore a Continuance of his Divine Protection over a Sovereign whoſe public Conduct and private Example juſtly merit the Affections of his People, and enſure the approving Admiration of every true Friend to the Safety and Welfare, Happineſs and Proſperity, of Great Britain.

To Her Majeſty the Queen, and to the whole Royal Family, we preſume to add every gratulatory Tribute of Loyalty and Attachment. In the full Enjoyment of public Bleſſings, peculiar to the Britiſh Conſtitution, long may they partlcipate in the domeſtic Felicity of their Sovereign, and ever find the Britiſh Nation, ſenſible of the high Privilege of pure and equal Laws, proudly proclaim with univerſal Joy,

God ſave the King.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Town-Clerk, Clerk of the Peace, and Prothonotary, the Sheriffs, the Magiſtrates, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the County of the Borough of Carmarthen, humbly beg Leave to approach you with Profeſſions of profound Reſpect for your Government, and ſincereſt Attachment to your Royal Perſon, with the moſt devout Humility and Gratitude we offer up our Thanksgiving to the Almighty, whoſe watchful Providence has fruſtrated the daring Attempt lately made on your ſacred Life. We are ſtruck with Horror and Aſtoniſhment, that in this Kingdom, ſo eminently bleſſed by the Impartiality of the Laws, and the Mildneſs with which your Majeſty has ever tempered their Rigour, an Individual could be found who could raiſe his ſacrilegious Arm againſt a Life, on the Continuance of which the Welfare and Safety of the whole Nation ſo eminently depend. And we are induced to hope for the Honor of Human Nature, that it will be found even a Thought of Injury to your Majeſty's Perſon, could never be engendered in any Head which had not unfortunately loſt that Reaſon which our merciful Creator has given us to be the Promptor and Guide of our Actions.

Deeply ſenſible that the Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms, and the Reſtoration of Tranquillity and Order to thoſe Parts of Europe, which are now convulſed to their Centre is materially and intimately blended with your Majeſty's Life: We ſhall with increaſed Energy ſupplicate the great and gracious Being, by whom King's reign, long to protract that fatal Hour when the Subjects of this Realm ſhall lament the Loſs of the Monarch, the Father, and the Friend.

We are truly ſenſible of the paternal Regard your Majeſty has ſhewn for the Welfare and Proſperity of all your Subjects, during the whole of your auſpicious Reign; and we ſincerely wiſh that ſo invaluable a Bleſſing as the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life, under Divine Providence, may long continue to be a Comfort to all your People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of Eaſt Retford, deeply impreſſed with Concern, that your Majeſty's Life, ſo juſtly endeared to a grateful People, ſhould be expoſed to the wicked Attempt of a depraved Aſſaſſin, do ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty on your Eſcape, truſting in that good Providence, whoſe peculiar Care was on this Occaſion ſo ſignally diſplayed, that your Majeſty's Days may be long and proſperous, and that the Heart-rending Woe of a Separation from your faithful Subjects may be very far diſtant.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Aſſiſtants, Common-Council, Free Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Colcheſter, in the County of Eſſex.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, feelingly alive to the Bleſſings we enjoy under the Influence of thoſe Civil and Religious Liberties which have ever given Celebrity to this Iſland, beg Leave to preſent our ſincere and cordial Congratulations on the providential Eſcape of your Majeſty from the late Attempt of a deſperate Aſſaſſin. When we look Abroad in Europe we find the Genius of the Continent in many Inſtances enchained by the moſt rigid Anarchy and Rebellion; but the Benignity of your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, and the mild and equitable Adminiſtration of our Laws, have taught all but the Friends of Anarchy and Confuſion, to repoſe the moſt unlimited Confidence in your Majeſty's paternal Protection, we reſt aſſured that Diſaffection lurks no where but in the Boſom of foul Ingratitude.

In the late Aſſaſſin's Attempt on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, we behold the deſperate Inſtrument of deluſive and ruinous Opinions from whence ariſe Convulſion and popular Diſorder; but if your Majeſty will turn your Eyes from theſe dark Syſtems of Treaſon and Rebellion to the enlightened Bulk of the Nation, you will find them ready to hail you as the Patron of the Arts, the Protector of a ſpirited and exalted Freedom, and the Father of your People.

May the Eternal Father of Mercies ſtill be your Majeſty's Shield and Buckler, may He confound the dark Intrigues of domeſtic Treaſon, develope the contending Factions of diſappointed Ambition, and ſilence the reſtleſs Spirit of Revolutionary Anarchy.

In Teſtimony whereof we the ſaid Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Aſſiſtants, Common-Council, and Free Burgeſſes, have put our Common Seal, and we the ſaid Inhabitants have ſet our Hands this Twenty-ſixth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand eight hundred.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Wilton, deeply impreſſed with Horror at the late Attempt made on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, by a deſperate Aſſaſſin, beg leave to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape.

We ardently hope that the ſame Divine Providence, which hath hitherto preſerved your Majeſty, will continue to protect your Royal Perſon, and that a long Life, crowned with the Eſteem and Veneration of all your Subjects, may be the Reward of your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government.

Given under our Common Seal at the Town-Hall of the ſaid Borough, this Twenty-ninth Day of May, in the Fortieth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Preſented by Lieutenant-General Goldſworthy.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Stockport, in the County of Cheſter and its Vicinity, humbly beg Leave to offer our moſt cordial and hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy and providential Eſcape from Aſſaſſination lately attempted upon your Royal Perſon by a Wretch, whoſe Crime, although it might be committed under the Influence of temporary Delirium, we feel no Inclination to palliate or extenuate, but our Minds are impreſſed with the deepeſt Horror and Deteſtation againſt alike the Traitor and the Act, which ſought to deprive us of our firſt temporal Bleſſing—a King virtuous and good, who affectionately regards his Subjects, and who has ſo long maintained the Honour and Independency of his Kingdom, againſt the united Factions and Machinations of other Nations. The Event calls forth our warmeſt Gratitude towards Divine Providence for preſerving to us that Bleſſing; and our ſincere Prayer is, for the future Safety of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, that your Subjects may continue long to experience the Benignity of your Majeſty's glorious and auſpicious Reign.

We ſolemnly declare our moſt firm and zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, which we pledge ourſelves to protect and defend againſt all ſecret or open, foreign or domeſtic Enemies.

[Preſented by Mr. Crewe and Colonel Cholmondeley.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provoſt, Baillies, and other Members of Council of the Royal Borough of Haddington, approach your Royal Perſon with Hearts full of Gratitude and unfeigned Joy, while we congratulate your Majeſty upon your late providential Eſcape from the Danger of Aſſaſſination.

Deeply impreſſed as we are with the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, and after the long Experience we have had of your paternal Attention to the Happineſs of all the Subjects of theſe Kingdoms, it was with the moſt lively Horror that we viewed the late atrocious Attempt which endangered a Life ſo dear to us all; and whilſt we view and acknowledge the merciful Interpoſition of Providence in averting a Danger ſo imminent, we truſt, that, under the ſame Protection, your Majeſty's Life will be long preſerved for the Happineſs of a free, a loyal, and a grateful People.

Highly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy in common with all our Fellow-Subjects under your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government, it is with ſincere Concern we lament that any Perſon could be found within your Majeſty's Dominions ſo evil-minded and daringly wicked; but, whilſt we reflect with the utmoſt Abhorrence and Indignation on a Conduct ſo atrocious, we acknowledge, with Reverence and Gratitude, the Divine Goodneſs in the Preſervation of a Life ſo juſtly dear and valuable to your People, and on which the Safety and Happineſs of theſe Realms depend.

Permit us, Sire, on this Occaſion, to aſſure your Majeſty of our Duty, Regard, and Affection, for your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Family. To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, and other principal Inhabitants, of the ancient Town of Rye.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, impreſſed with Horror and Indignation at the moſt atrocious Attempt which has been lately made on your ſacred Perſon, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne with a renewal of Profeſſions of our dutiful Regard and Gratitude for the numberleſs Bleſſings we have continued to enjoy, during your Majeſty's moſt mild and auſpicious Reign, and with Aſſurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government.

We preſent, with the greateſt Reſpect, our moſt ſincere Congratulations, that your Majeſty's Perſon remains uninjured from an Attack, that human Wiſdom or Power could not prevent.

We reverenee the Goodneſs of that Providence by which your Majeſty's Life, ſo dear to all your Subjects, has been happily protected, and will offer up our moſt fervent Prayers to Almighty God, to implore the Continuance of his watchful Care over your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town of Knareſbrough and its Neighbourhood, beg Leave to preſent before the Throne our ſincere and joyful Congratulations on your Majeſty's late providential Eſcape.

Whilſt we feel, in common with our Fellow-ſubjects the deepeſt Horror and Indignation at the atrocious Attempt againſt your Majeſty's Life, we unite with them in humble Gratitude to that Divine Providence which rendered it abortive; and which, extracting Good from Evil, has made the repeated Perils to which your Royal Perſon has been expoſed, to ſerve only as Occaſions for your loyal Subjects to prove to your Majeſty and to the World how much your Majeſty reigns in the Hearts of a free and grateful People.

We pray Almighty God to continue to your Majeſty Health and long Life, ſo eſſential to our Happineſs and Proſperity of this Nation.

WE, the Inhabitants of Bilſton, in the County of Stafford, and its Environs, with ſincere and moſt heartfelt Gratitude to that Supreme Being in whoſe Hands are the Iſſues of Life and Death, beg Leave humbly to offer our warmeſt Congratulations to your Majeſty upon the failure of the late horrid Attempt upon your Majeſty's moſt invaluable Life.

The ſignal Intervention of Divine Providence, at the awful Moment when the Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms was attacked in the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty, we feel as one of thoſe high inеſtimable Bleſſings by which it hath pleaſed Almighty God to diſtinguiſh your Majeſty's faithful and affectionate People amidſt the deſolating Commotions of ſurrounding Nations.

That the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life and Health may be ſtill the peculiar Care of that Divine Providence is the unanimous and ardent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt affectionate and faithful Subjects.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town of Faverſham, in the County of Kent.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town of Faverſham, in the County of Kent, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne, with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the parricidal Hand which hath been raiſed againſt your ſacred Perſon.

When we reflect on the paternal Care of your Majeſty ſo uninterruptedly diſplayed during the courſe of your long and auſpicious Reign, towards all your Subjects, when we conſider your Majeſty's Life as interwoven with their Happineſs; we can find no Words ſufficient to expreſs the Horror which we feel at the Recollection of the Danger to which your Majeſty hath been expoſed, and the Joy which animates our Hearts in the Conſideration of your Majeſty's Safety.

May the great Diſpoſer of Events, who hath ſo often been your Majeſty's Protector in very perilous Situations, and before whom we now proſtrate ourſelves with the ſtrongeſt Gratitude, long continue to preſerve your Majeſty happy in the merited Affection of your People, and the faithful Guardian of their Proſperity.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

EVER anxious and eager, on all Occaſions, to be found among the foremoſt of your Majeſty's liege Subjects, in unequivocal Expreſſions of Fealty and affectionate Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, we, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Wakefield, humbly preſume to approach your Royal Preſence, and ſolemnly to avow at the Foot of the Throne, our unfeigned Reprobation of the late ſanguinary and deſperate Attempt on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

Rejoicing, as we do, at your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the ruthleſs Hand of the Aſſaſſin, it is not in the Power of Language to convey an adequate Idea of our Exultation and Gratitude, nor can we ſufficiently magnify the ſupreme and beneficent Diſpoſer of all Events, for this his ſignal and repeated Interpoſition for the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Invaluable Life.

May the Almighty ſtill watch over a Sovereign ſo deſervedly dear to his faithful Subjects; may your Majeſty's Confidence in the Divine Protection remain firm and undiminiſhed! Long may your Majeſty wield the Sceptre of Power, Juſtice, and Mercy, over a free, proſperous, and happy People! and in adding Length of Days to your Majeſty, may the ſame good Providence be pleaſed graciouſly to remove all ſimilar Cauſe of Apprehenſion and Solicitude for your Majeſty's Safety, from the Breaſts of your Royal Conſort, auguſt and affectionate Family, and loyal People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's Subjects, the Deacon and Members of the Corporation of Candlemakers in Edinburgh, deeply impreſſed by the Danger to which the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty was lately expoſed, from the horrid Attempt of an unprincipled Aſſaſſin, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne, not only to congratulate your Majeſty on the providential Eſcape, but to join with your Majeſty's other Subjects in Thanks to Almighty God for the Preſervation of a Life ſo truly valuable and intereſting to this Nation.

That your Majeſty may be long preſerved to reign over a free and happy People, is the earneſt Prayer of your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Corporation.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop of London, the Dean and Chapter of Saint Paul's, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Weſtminſter.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of London, the Dean and Chapter of Saint Paul's, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, beg Permiſſion to approach your Royal Preſence with our heartfelt Congratulations to your Majeſty on your late providential Deliverance from the nefarious Attempt of a deſperate Aſſaſſin.

Although we cannot but contemplate this atrocious Deed with Horror and Diſmay, yet, however deteſtable in the Intention, it has in the Event brought along with it no ſmall Conſolation to our Minds. It has given a freſh Proof to us that there is a Power on high, ſuperior to all the Machinations of Man which ſees and turns aſide from your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon every hoſtile Blow that is aimed againſt it. It has at the ſame Time afforded your Majeſty an Opportunity of diſplaying that calm, compoſed, and ſteady Fortitude which ſtands unappalled amidſt Dangers, that make every other Heart in the Kingdom tremble for a beloved Sovereign; and it has alſo called forth from all your Majeſty's Subjects ſuch unequivocal Marks of Affection and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, ſuch univerſal Indignation againſt the Miſcreant that has dared to lift up his Hand againſt you; ſuch undiſſembled Joy at the Failure of his diabolical Purpoſe, as cannot fail to give your Majeſty the ſincereſt Satisfaction, and to convince you (were any Proof neceſſary) that your Majeſty reigns in the Hearts of all your Subjects.

We are, Sir, indeed moſt devoutly thankful to the Almighty for having once more preſerved a Life inexpreſſibly dear to us, and in which are bound up the moſt important Intereſts, not only of this Kingdom, but of the whole Chriſtian World. The firm and the noble Stand your Majeſty has made for ſo many Years againſt the common Enemies of Mankind has rendered your Majeſty's Name illuſtrious upon the Continent, and given the Nations of Europe a lively Intereſt in your perſonal Safety and Welfare.

But to us, who have the Happineſs of living under your immediate Protection, who have daily Inſtances before our Eyes of your paternal Tenderneſs for your People, and your inviolable Regard for our envied Conſtitution both in Church and State, who feel the Influence of that Example which throws new Luſtre round the Throne, and adds Weight to the great Cauſe of Morality and Religion. To us, every Danger that approaches your Royal Perſon gives an Alarm which no Words can expreſs, and which nothing but a firm Truſt in the Divine Favour can quiet and compoſe.

Under theſe Impreſſions we cannot but feel moſt deeply the Magnitude of the Bleſſing which has been juſt vouchſafed to us; and we can never ceaſe imploring the great Ruler of the Univerſe, that he would ſtill be pleaſed to cover your Majeſty with that heavenly Shield which has been ſo often interpoſed between you and Danger; and that he would in his Mercy preſerve to us for many Years to come, the Father of his People, the Guardian of our Liberty, our Laws, and our Religion, and the intrepid Defender of every Thing that is moſt dear to us as Men, as Britons, and as Chriſtians.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury of the County of Middleſex.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IMPELLED by unfeigned Affection and Duty, we, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury of the County of Middleſex, now ſitting in your Majeſty's Court of King's Bench at Weſtminſter, approach your Royal Preſence with our ſincere Congratulations on your happy and providential Deliverance from the outrageous Attack lately made upon your ſacred Perſon.

Senſible of the Importance of your Majeſty's Life to the Happineſs of your People, and of the Affliction they would have ſuſtained by its mournful Determination, it was impoſſible the late dreadful Attempt could do otherwiſe than excite in our Minds an Alarm, and awful Horror.

At the Moment of offering up our moſt fervent Prayers to Almighty God for your Majeſty's Preſervation, we lay our Hands upon our Hearts, and aſſure your Majeſty we ſhall at all Times be ready to lay down our Lives not only to protect your ſacred Perſon from the Hands of an Aſſaſſin, but from every other Enemy to your Perſon and Government.

Permit us to wiſh that your Majeſty may long continue to reign over us proſperous and happy.

Devoted to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government by every Sentiment of Duty and Gratitude, and deeply impreſſed with the warmeſt Senſe of the innumerable Bleſſings which we, and all your Majeſty's Subjects enjoy under your mild and auſpicious Government, we gratefully acknowledge the Mercy and Goodneſs of the Great Lord and Father of all in the Protection of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and fervently implore Him long to preſerve a Life ſo juſtly dear to all your People, and to continue to them the diſtinguiſhed Bleſſings which they enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt gracious paternal Adminiſtration.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AMIDST the Effuſions of a loyal and grateful People on your Majeſty's late happy Eſcape from a treaſonable Attempt againſt your ſacred Perſon, permit the Treaſurer and Maſters of the Bench of the ancient Society of the Inner Temple, humbly to approach your Throne with their Tribute of Congratulation.

At a Time of univerſal Joy, which now animates all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, it would ill become the Profeſſors of the Municipal Law of this Kingdom, which hath excited the Envy of Nations, and which hath been honoured with your Majeſty's invariable Regard and Protection, to omit this Opportunity of expreſſing their warmeſt and moſt dutiful Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and their Acknowledgment of the Bleſſings which this Kingdom enjoys under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign.

Deeply impreſſed with Horror at the late atrocious and traitorous Attempt upon your Majeſty's Life, and devoutly thankful to the Almighty for his providential Interference, it is our moſt ardent Wiſh and Prayer that the ſame good Providence may continue to preſerve your Majeſty, and that you may long reign over a free, loyal, and affectionate People.

Conſidering the mild Tenor of your Majeſty's Government, and the Bleſſings which your Subjects derive from the beſt of Conſtitutions, it was little to be expected that any of your People could have diſcovered ſuch a Spirit of Depravity as to be capable of attempting a Crime ſo impious againſt the ſacred Life of your Majeſty, the kind Friend and Father of your People.

We preſume to offer to your Majeſty our moſt cordial Congratulations on your late providential Eſcape; and that Almighty God may protect your Majeſty from every Danger, and may long preſerve your precious Life for a Bleſſing to this Kingdom is our fervent Prayer.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Miniſter and Elders of the German Congregation in the Savoy, humbly preſent to your Majeſty the ſincere and cordial Congratulation of our Congregation on your providential Deliverance from the late impious and alarming Attempt on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

Conſidering the numerous Bleſſings which we, though Strangers, enjoy in common with the Reſt

The humble Addreſs of the Archbiſhop and Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitical Church of Saint Peter of York.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Archbiſhop and the Dean and Chapter of your Cathedral and Metropolitical Church of Saint Peter in York, beg Leave to expreſs our Concurrence in the general Teſtimonies of a ſincere Attachment to your Majeſty, and to join in the public Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from a traitorous Attempt againſt your ſacred Perſon.

However atrocious and alarming the Attempt was, it has been followed by this Satisfaction, that it has produced the moſt general Effuſions of Affection and Eſteem from all Ranks of your Majeſty's Subjects, and theſe not ariſing from a caſual or ſhort Popularity, but from the ſober Deciſions of deliberate Judgment.

You have the Happineſs, Sire, to be the Sovereign of an honeſt People who abhor ſuch Treaſons, not only as being wicked and contrary to the Welfare of common Society, but as particularly dangerous to free Conſtitutions, which are always brought into extreme Hazard by ſuch Attempts. In Addition to their general Reaſonings, they ſaw in the Perſon of your Majeſty a Life endangered in the Preſervation of which their deareſt Intereſts were all involved.

Permit us, Sire, who conſider your Majeſty as not by Law only, but by Principle, the Defender of our Faith, to be as forward as at leaſt any others in the Expreſſion of our Zeal and Duty. We have already in our Prayers offered theſe the Feelings of our Hearts at the Throne of Grace, and we think ourſelves ſafe in expreſſing them to your Majeſty, being aſſured, from the Nobleneſs of your Nature, that they will excite in you no other Sentiments but thoſe of an encreaſed Affection to a dutiful and deſerving People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbiſhop, the Dean, and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitical Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Canterbury, beg Leave humbly to offer our heartfelt Congratulations to your Majeſty, on your late providential Deliverance from the unprovoked Attack made on your ſacred Perſon by the Hand of a traitorous Aſſaſſin.

Shocked as we were at this Inſtance of Perſonal Depravity, we immediately felt it as a ſtrong call on us and all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, to teſtify our firm and unalterable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and at the ſame Time to expreſs our Senſe of the Mercy and Goodneſs of that Almighty Being who has averted a Blow, which, without His gracious Interpoſition would have proved ſo fatal to our National Happineſs which it has been the unwearied Care and Study of your Majeſty's Life to eſtabliſh and preſerve.

Deeply impreſſed with theſe Sentiments we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that, in the Diſcharge of our official Duty we feel it incumbent on us to urge the Neceſſity of looking up with fervent Gratitude to the Author and Giver of the many Mercies hitherto vouchſafed to this Kingdom, particularly the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life, as a bright Example of Morality and pure Religion, and of offering up our Supplications to Almighty God that for the Sake of your Royal Family, for the Sake of your good Subjects of every Rank and Deſcription, and for the Sake of our Holy Religion, your Majeſty may long reign in Safety and Happineſs over a grateful and affectionate People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter of your Cathedral Church of Ely, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Ely, moſt humbly requeſt your Majeſty's Acceptance of our heartfelt Congratulations on your recent providential Deliverance from the premeditated Violence of a daring Aſſaſſin. With the deepeſt Indignation and Horror we lament that any Individual, even amongſt the vileſt and moſt hardened in Iniquity, ſhould be found capable of perpetrating or conceiving ſo atrocious a Parricide. Void indeed of every generous Sentiment muſt that Mind be which could harbour a Thought of depriving the Nation of the innumerable Bleſſings which it derives from your benign and auſpicious Reign. Such an Inſtance of extreme Criminality can only be attributed to thoſe malevolent and baneful Leſſons of Infidelity and Miſrule, which for ſome Years paſt have been ſo aſſiduouſly inculcated upon the public Mind; and in this Perſuaſion we aſſure your Majeſty we ſhould eſteem ourſelves unworthy of the Conſtitution and Sovereign under which we are peculiarly bleſſed, were we not determined to the beſt of our Ability to ſtem this deſtructive Torrent of Depravity.

May the guardian Care of Heaven continue to ſhield our exemplary and beloved Sovereign from the Violence of domeſtic as well as of foreign Enemies: may your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Family, long enjoy in Security and Honor thoſe earthly Comforts which you ſo widely diffuſe; and at length may you reap thoſe unfading Rewards, the Proſpect of which has proved your conſtant Support under all your Difficulties and Trials.

May the God of all Mercies continue to protect your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon; may Health, long Life, and Proſperity, be your Majeſty's Portion; may the choiceſt Bleſſings attend your Royal Family and Government, and may our Churches (the oldeſt Foreign Proteſtant in this Kingdom) continue to enjoy your Majeſty's moſt powerful and gracious Protection.

Honoured, as we are, with the proud Diſtinction of the Character and Deſignation of "your Majeſty's Servants," our Boſoms are enlivened by a Sentiment of affectionate Duty that gives increaſed Effect to our general Gratitude as Subjects.

Many of us were witneſſes to this deſperate Attempt, and ſaw with Admiration and Reverence, that, what excited in us Fear and Horror, drew forth from your Majeſty Expreſſions only of the moſt dignified Fortitude.

The humble Addreſs of your Majeſty's Subjects confined in the King's Bench Priſon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AMIDST the univerſal Effuſions of Joy and Thankſgiving, we your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with this faithful and affectionate Tribute of our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Escape of your Majesty's sacred Person from the late atrocious Attempt against a Life distinguished (as it ever has been) for unexampled Virtue, and devoted to the Glory and Happiness of a grateful People. And we lament in common with all Descriptions of your loyal Subjects, that there could exist within this Realm (so eminently blessed by your auspicious Reign) a Heart capable of harbouring, or a Hand of executing an Act of so foul and wicked a Nature, endangering at once the Existence of the best of Sovereigns, and a Constitution the Envy and Admiration of surrounding Nations.

And though precluded by our peculiar Situation from rallying round the Person of our beloved Sovereign in the Hour of Danger, we however most solemnly assure your Majesty our Attachment to your Royal Person remains undiminished, and cannot be exceeded by any of your Majesty's Subjects.

And we earnestly offer up our ardent Prayers to the Almighty God to shield and guard your Majesty's inestimable Life against foreign and domestic Enemies, and thereby prevent the most dreadful Calamity that could possibly befal a Kingdom, the Welfare and Prosperity of which is so immediately connected with the Safety of your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and capital Burgesses of the Borough and Foreign of Walsall, humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty the Horror and Indignation we feel at the late diabolical Attempt against your Royal Person, and at the same Time to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfull Congratulations on your Preservation from such imminent Danger.

Deeply sensible of the great Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government, and considering your Majesty as truly the Father of your People, we feel the liveliest Gratitude at this Interposition of the Divine Providence in our Favor; and we most fervently pray that the same Divine Power may still continue to watch over and preserve the Life of a Monarch so justly dear to his Subjects, and so essential to their Welfare and Happiness.

Thomas Hodgkins, Town-Clerk.

Horse-Guards, June 4th, 1800.

HIS Royal Highness the Commander in Chief has received the King's Commands, to convey to the several Volunteer and Associated Corps, assembled in Hyde Park this Morning, His Majesty's Thanks for their truly military Appearance, which reflects infinite Credit on the Officers, under whom they have attained their present degree of Perfection, as well as on the Individuals who have enrolled themselves in these Corps, for Objects of the highest national Importance.

His Majesty, with the most heartfelt Satisfaction, contemplates, amidst the many Testimonies of affectionate Attachment which he has recently received from every Class of his Subjects, the unabated Loyalty and Zeal which pervade the armed Volunteers throughout the Kingdom.

The Corps of this Description established in the Metropolis, and its Vicinity, have strongly evinced their Sentiments, to the World, and in a Mode peculiarly gratifying to His Majeſty, by the Order and Regularity they have this Day exhibited.

His Majeſty, while he thus ſtrongly expreſſes his Approbation of them as Soldiers, with Eagerneſs embraces the Opportunity of teſtifying the Senſe he entertains of their Merits in their Civil Capacities; He views with Pride and Exultation this reſpectable Force, formed on the trueſt Conſtitutional Principles, and called forth in Defence of thoſe National Bleſſings, and of that Freedom, which it is the firſt Wiſh of His Majeſty's Heart, to preſerve unimpaired, as the ſureſt Supports of the Dignity and Proſperity of the Britiſh Empire.

His Royal Highneſs the Commander in Chief has the higheſt Satisfaction in diſcharging his Duty, by communicating His Majeſty's moſt gracious Sentiments towards the Volunteer and Aſſociated Corps, and requeſts that the commanding Officers will have Recourſe to the readieſt Means of making the ſame known to their reſpective Corps, which were this Morning reviewed by His Majeſty.

FREDERICK, F.M. Commander in Chief.

St. James's, June 4, 1800.

This Day being obſerved at Court as the Anniverſary of the King's Birth-Day, there was a very numerous and ſplendid Appearance of the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, to compliment His Majeſty on the Occaſion. The Guns at the Park and at the Tower were fired at One o'Clock; and in the Evening there was a Ball at Court, and Illuminations and other Public Demonſtrations of Joy throughout London and Weſtminſter.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Sir Roger Curtis, Bart. Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels at the Cape of Good Hope, to Evan Nepean, Eſq; dated on board the Lancaſter, in Table Bay, the 3*d February* 1800.

SIR,

I Send you herewith a Letter I have received from Captain Oſborn, of His Majeſty's Ship the Tremendous, giving an Account of the running on Shore on the Iſle of France, and deſtroying the Preneuſe French National Frigate, and of ſome Captures made during the Cruiſe.

I am, Sir. &c. &c. &c.

ROGER CURTIS.

Tremendous, Cape of Good Hope, February 3, 1800.

SIR,

I Beg Leave to inform you, that being off the Iſle of France, in Company with His Majeſty's Ship Adamant, on the 11th of December laſt we chaſed a French Frigate, which ran on Shore on the Weſt Side of the River Tombeau, about Three Miles from Port Louis in that Iſland; after firing ſeveral Broadſides at her ſhe cut away her Maſts; at Seven P. M. the Boats were ſent to deſtroy her under the Command of Lieutenant Gray of the Adamant, aſſiſted by Lieutenant Walker of that Ship, Lieutenant Symes of the Tremendous, and Lieutenant Owen of the Marines of the Adamant, who very handſomely requeſted to go upon that Service. At Half paſt Nine the Boats returned, bringing with them the Officers and ſome few of the Men whom they found on board the Frigate, which proved to be La Preneuſe, of Forty-four Guns and Three Hundred Men, commanded by Captain L'Hermite, to which they had ſet Fire in ſeveral Places, and which ſhortly after blew up. The prompt and ſpirited Manner in which this Service was performed, under a very heavy Fire from the Batteries, reflects great Honor on Lieutenant Gray and the Officers and Men under his Command.

During our Cruize the Adamant captured the Benjamin, a French Sloop laden with Coffee, from the Iſland of Bourbon, bound to the Iſle of France, and the Bienfait, a French Brig, laden with Rice, for the ſame Place; and the Tremendous captured the Neuſtra Senora del Carmen, a Spaniſh Brig, laden with Coffee, Indigo, and Bale Goods, from the Iſle of France to Rio de la Plata, all of which I am happy to inform you, are arrived.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c.

J. OSBORN.
